CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY PROVIDES INCOME FOR DONORS FOR LIFE, SUPPORTS CHURCH PERPETUALLY IN DEATH

Edna "Major" Hackney and Harry Pease were both born in Cohutta, Georgia, where their dads both worked for the railroad. Major and Harry first met in grammar school, before her family moved to Dalton. That is where she first got involved with the Methodist Church. Major became a nurse and Harry graduated from Georgia Tech with a degree in Textile Engineering before his Army service in the Pacific Theater in WWII.

After the war, Major and Harry found each other again and married in 1947. Later they moved to Loudon, Tennessee, where Loudon UMC became their permanent church home. Major was president of the United Methodist Women and a member of the Deborah Circle and known for her generous baked goods and quiet service. Harry ran the local hosiery plant and if he really liked you...you just might receive a gift of socks.

The Pease's were interested in not only supporting their church but also providing income for their retirement years. After reviewing the options, they funded a charitable gift annuity.

Harry passed away last year in May and Major died last Christmas Eve. As a result of their generosity and careful planning, The Mr. & Mrs. Harry Pease Building & Maintenance Endowment, funded by the charitable gift annuity, will permanently support the church that they so deeply loved. The Pease's were humble, quiet, generous people and their legacy will not be forgotten.

If you are interested in learning more about how a gift can help fund your retirement years and support your local church, please contact us at the Foundation. We would love to discuss your options, tax benefits and help you leave a legacy for others.
