

A United Response

Putting Discipleship Into Action

The United Methodist Church is responding with Christ-like compassion to a worldwide effort to end malaria deaths. This ministry, called Imagine No Malaria, is our opportunity to rethink how we reach beyond our church to connect with our brothers and sisters in Christ. Just as the cross is a sign to us of God's love, we are working together to be a sign of God's love and commitment to the world.

Uniting Faith and Works

Imagine No Malaria is an extraordinary effort of The people of The United Methodist Church to raise $75 million to eliminate death and suffering from malaria in Africa by 2015. This comprehensive approach to beating malaria will engage the passion of 11.5 million United Methodists worldwide will empower an entire continent to achieve a sustainable victory over malaria through prevention, education, communication and treatment.

A Foundation of Compassion

As Christians, we are called live into God's word; seeking those in need, helping the poor and healing the sick. As United Methodists, we uphold our Wesleyan tradition of doing all the good we can to all the people we can in all the places we can. Through Imagine No Malaria, we are united in our faith, opening doors to help those who need it most.
